Distance Education for Pastors and Ministry Leaders

Letter from the President

Welcome to Teleo University. We are a global distance education institution committed to equipping pastors and church leaders with world-class practical ministry training without leaving their churches and networks of ministry relationships.

Teleo is a Koine Greek word that means 1) to bring to a close, to finish; or 2) complete or fulfill a command. In the New Testament, the Apostle Paul used Teleo in 2 Timothy 4:7, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race." Again, in John 19:30 as Jesus died on the cross for our salvation, He said, "It is finished." In Acts 1:8 and Matthew 28, Jesus told his followers that they would be His witnesses in their cities, their countries, and throughout the whole world until the Great Commission was finished. Teleo captures our passion for finishing the Great Commission by being and making disciples of all nations.

We believe the Great Commission can and will be finished. We believe the whole world will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of God. It is our all-consuming passion to do everything we can, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to see it through. Join us in this obeying Christ's call to finish the Great Commission. I can think of no greater pursuit in our lifetime.

Dr. Jay Klopfenstein

History and Heritage

The Teleo University story began in 1991 when T-Net was founded by Bill Hull, a pastor committed to returning his church and others to their disciple making roots. T-Net is an interdenominational ministry committed to coaching pastors and church leaders to finish the Great Commission in their congregations, regions, and in every country of the world. Finishing the Great Commission in every country of the world so that no nation is unreached is what we call PROJECT ZERO because the mandate of "all nations" or "all ethnos" ends at ZERO.

After years of partnering with Christian colleges and seminaries to grant degrees, T-Net founded Teleo University to serve the thousands of pastors completing T-Net's Theological Education by Extension in dozens of countries in Africa, Asia, and the Americas. Dr. Klopfenstein is leading T-Net and Teleo University to finish the Great Commission in every nation through the Project Zero initiative. T-Net will continue to train international pastors to multiply disciple making churches. And Teleo University will offer distance education and degrees that are built upon T-Net's rigorous training program. We follow the principle found in 2 Timothy 2:2, "Teach faithful men who can teach others also" until the Great Commission is finished...

Because the Mandate ENDS AT ZERO.

Teleo University Distinctives

Teleo University plays a unique role in Theological Education by Extension. Teleo University's focus is on Finishing the Great Commission of Jesus (Matthew 28:19-20) in each nation of the world by empowering indigenous pastors and church leaders. Teleo University only seeks students who are currently pastors, church planters, or key lay leaders. These Christian leaders do not need to leave their ministries and families to attend classes. Teleo University offers no resident campus learning. Instead, students must remain in a local church ministry to implement what they learn in this unique correspondence distance education program.

Teleo University professors share their knowledge with students through cross-culturally tested correspondence courses. Students only meet their professors through the printed curriculum or video coaching but without in-person interaction. Our printed curriculum, supported by local study groups and experienced facilitators, empowers our students to receive practical theological education while continuing to serve in their local church ministry.

By gathering students into study groups called T-Net Training Centers, students benefit from carefully prepared study materials, collaboration with fellow students, and facilitators (called T-Net Trainers) who have studied and applied this curriculum in their ministries. Furthermore, the Internet now offers access to more resources and allows student exposure to Teleo University professors, course authors, and subject matter experts.
